Profile

Working as a freelance filmmaker along a wide variety of roles, I have experience using different cameras and formats including 35mm and 16mm film as well as digital cameras such as Alexa, Sony FS7 and F65 on both short films and commercials. I have worked as a freelance videographer for TimeOut London and for artist Lauren Baker for use in her exhibitions. I'm a MA graduate of the London film School and am diligent and hard working, also focused and give great attention to detail.
